

8 Days Charter Itinerary

Corfu to Zakynthos

The Ionian Sea is home to a number of beautiful Greek islands, collectively known as the Ionian Islands. The area is one of the most scenic cruising grounds in the world – a fitting setting for the great Homeric myths.

Day 1 Corfu

Corfu has long been a favoured stopover, and as such it is an amalgam of numerous inherited cultures and architectural styles. Full of appealing villages and excellent beaches, the islands has plenty to keep the anchored seafarer entertained.

Day 2 Corfu – Paxos

Once you have had your fill of Corfu, the stunning island of Paxos awaits. Cruise alongside the dramatic Emritis Cliffs along the northwest coast. Anchor in a quiet cove or take the tender ashore to the buzzing beaches.

Day 3 Paxos – Anti Paxos – Levkas

The neighbouring island of Anti Paxos is a haven for watersports enthusiasts. Spend the afternoon anchored in one of the many secluded coves before cruising on to Levkas.

Day 4 Levkas – Meganissi – Levkas

Levkas boasts an interior of wooded hills encircled by a coastline of high cliffs. Spend another day of watersports activities in the deep coves and turquoise-bays of Meganissi, the largest islet in the southern part of the island.

Day 5 Levkas – Ithaca

Cruise to Homer's Ithaca. Resonant with ancient folklore, explore the cave of the Nymphs, the fountain of Arethusa, and Odysseus' palace. Early evening step ashore to the tavernas that line the bijou ports.

Day 6 Ithaca – Cephalonia

Hop over to Cephalonia's northernmost port, Fiskardo. A magnet for superyachts, Fiskardo is one of the chicest fishing ports in the Ionian. Cruise south to Myrtos beach, with its white and azure waters under sheer cliffs.

Day 7 & 8 - Cephalonia to Zakynthos

The southernmost island in the Ionian archipelago, Zakynthos is worth the detour for its vineyards, orchards, olive groves, and fantastic beaches. Before heading back to Cephalonia, relax in the therapeutic sulphur springs around Keri.
